- . Germans do not need a personal relationship in order to do business.
- . They will be interested in your academic credentials and the amount of time your company has been in business.
- . Germans display great deference to people in authority, so it is imperative that they understand your level relative to their own.
- . Germans do not have an open-door policy. People often work with their office door closed. Knock and wait to be invited in before entering.
- . German communication is formal.
- . Following the established protocol is critical to building and maintaining business relationships.
- . As a group, Germans are suspicious of hyperbole, promises that sound too good to be true, or displays of emotion.
- . Germans will be direct to the point of bluntness.
- . Expect a great deal of written communication, both to back up decisions and to maintain a record of decisions and discussions.
