

CLEO COMMUNICATIONS

Public Relations Internship

Internship Description

Cleo Communications seeks motivated students with excellent written and oral communication skills for paid or for credit summer internships in our Baltimore office.

Interns will gain significant experience in:

- media relations
- special event planning
- new business research
- press material development
- community relations
- pitching targeted media

Research, writing, event coordination and staffing, media pitching and brainstorming are skills typically used by Cleo interns.

If interested, please send your resume, cover letter, a writing sample and two references with contact information to:

Renee Libby

rlibby@cleocomm.com

18 W. Franklin St., #1

Baltimore, MD 21201

Cleo Communications is a public relations agency that creates and implements customized communications strategies. We work with real estate developers, home builders, sustainable building companies, non-profit organizations and educational institutions. See www.cleocomm.com for more information.