

HERBERT YERGEN
SOURCES

Write a summary describing the experiences of combat soldiers in the field during World War I. You must provide at least two examples from the sites I asked you to read. To prove that you are drawing from the sites' information, when you illustrate certain facts you came across, write the title of the site in parentheses after the sentence. For example, if when I am writing about the experiences of trench warfare and I refer to the devastation of the "trench foot" condition, if I found this information within my textbook, then I would write (The Americans) after my sentences that deal with this condition.

HERBERT
YERGEN
SOURCES

Write a summary describing the experiences of fighter pilots in the field during World War I. You must provide at least two examples from the sites I asked you to read. To prove that you are drawing from the sites' information, when you illustrate certain facts you came across, write the title of the site in parentheses after the sentence. For example, if when I am writing about the experiences of trench warfare and I refer to the devastation of the "trench foot" condition, if I found this information within my textbook, then I would write (The Americans) after my sentences that deal with this condition.